

Clemes Booklist 2017

Please note that some items on the booklist are specific to Friends' and will not be available at general retail outlets. Those items are only available at the Birchalls Back to School Shop and are marked on the booklist with # for your reference. During the year, these items will be available to purchase at The School Shop should a replacement be required.

^ (School Shop) Some items will be supplied at school and will be charged to your family fees account. Those items are marked ^ (School Shop) for your reference.

+ Publishers release new editions of textbooks from time to time. When this occurs our teaching staff review the difference between the old and new editions. Where the differences between editions do not impact upon the students course of study, the titles will be marked + to indicate you may wish to utilise a second hand copy if you have access to one.

Other stationery items may be required from time to time during the year. They may be purchased from The Friends' School Shop.

At Clemes, students further develop their individual approach to learning, including note-taking, organising materials, preparing assignments and revising.

This individual style affects the general stationery your child will need. We suggest you speak with your child about their general stationery needs and preferences for use across all subjects.

Start the year by covering the basics: pens and pencils; paper, binder books or lecture books; some binders or folders; and the usual accessories such as rulers, erasers, a pencil sharpener and a stapler.

Specific stationery is still required for most subjects and you must ensure that your child has these items available for use in class. They are listed below.

ARTS FACULTY

Common Art Set

A number of art related subjects require certain stationery items in common. These items have been grouped together here as the Common Art Set. You only need to purchase one Common Art Set, even if studying more than one art related subject that lists the set as required stationery.
